

Second Announcement

Innovation for Sustainability

The Crisis as Opportunity

WECF celebrates its 15th anniversary and invites to a debate with global and local sustainable leaders

Wednesday, 10th of June 2009

Location: The Hague, Theater Concordia, Hoge Zand 42

Registration as off 9:00, opening 10:00, closing reception 18:00

The sustainable future exists already – locally – how do we make it global:

„Andy sells hours of solar energy light to the poor in Laos“

Rostom produces biogas from manure and waste from a nearby brewery

Ela's Polish farmers are proud of their new producer-consumer cooperation for products of old apple varieties, and even prouder of their GMO-free zones

Elmira provides micro credit for rural women in Kyrgyzstan, who reinvest gains in new ecological toilets

- With Prof. Noreena Hertz, renowned British economist and author, linked to the University of Cambridge
- With Christine von Weizsäcker, WECF's new chairperson and driving force behind a fair biodiversity treaty
- With innovative companies from the Netherlands and internationally: "Zonfabriek", "Sunlabob"
- With WECF partners of Armenia, Uzbekistan, Bulgaria, Russia, Poland, Kyrgyzstan, Georgia and Tadjikistan
- With Dutch and international policy makers
